Our shoe departmest was crowded all day—and women waited on themselves in their eagerneess to share in the bargains. Some themserves in time reagernacess to some in the margains. Some bought 2 and 3 pairs—but ne wonder. The values are sim-ply irresistable. There are hundreds of pairs still left to choose from—all sizes and all leathers still to be had—and they are celebrated American shoes: "Queen Quality" and "Boston Favorite" makes. Women who are used to wearing good shoes know these names-and they know too, that
